7. Can I use internet banking? How do I pay the exam fees on-line?

Yes,. Payment of exam fees through internet banking is permitted. You can also make payment of exam fees by using master/visa/maestro credit/debit cards and also through e-challan generated from your nearby Allahabad bank branch.

8. My payment was successful. But I am not able to generate the PDF document/payment slip? What should I do now?

In the internet payment channel loss of payment happens for a small number of cases due to many issues like bandwidth, response time from bank, students refreshing the page frequently etc. Even though the amount may have got deducted from your account, due to above reasons it has not got reflected in our account.

Please pay again and successfully get the PDF. You can send the email for the refund of fees. However, any multiple payments received by us for the same student (applying more than once with the same Registration Number) will be refunded by the office on its own at the end of the online forms process.

You can check the status of your application on the engagement board on <https://recruitment.g3sfoundation.org> Mere deduction of fee from your account does not mean successful form submission.

9. I filled in the on-line form and also paid the exam fees. However, when I saw the credit card/bank statement, I realized that the amount of the exam fees has been debited more than once in my account. It appears that I might have paid the exam fees more than once. Can I get a refund of the excess amount paid by me? What is the procedure for claiming the excess exam fee payment arising on account of multiple payments/lost transactions etc?

Multiple payments received by us, if any, for a single student (with same registration number), will be identified by the system and are refunded for the credit of the respective accounts from where they originated, by the office, within 30 days of the last date for submission of forms.

In case you have made payment of exam fees more than once and that is received by us for the same student registration number and you do not get a refund within 30 days from the last date for submission of forms, you can claim a refund of the excess amount paid by you, by writing to us within 45 days from the last date for submission of forms, along with documentary evidence, such as bank/credit card statement, of having paid the exam fees more than once. G3S foundation will verify the same and refund the excess amount, if any, paid by you.

10. How do I know that my on-line registration is successful? Do I get any Acknowledgement upon submission of on-line form?

Upon successful completion of on-line registration, a message appears on the computer screen stating that your transaction is successful and giving further instructions on how to take a print out of your on-line application and send us. You can take a print out of the same and keep on your record. You can also check the status of your application on-line.
